

House Resolution No. 275

Whereas, Computers Plus, Inc., (CPI) in Jefferson City, Missouri, was honored as the proud recipient of the prestigious 2002 Missouri impact! Award for Continuous Improvements in Manufacturing Excellence during a special ceremony held February 6, 2002; and

Whereas, established in 1998, the Missouri impact! Award was created by Missouri Enterprise, a not-for-profit business assistance center dedicated to providing business and technical assistance to Missouri businesses, to recognize the accomplishments of its business clients and associates; and

Whereas, founded in 1990, Computers Plus, Inc., is one of Missouri's largest independent personal computer services firms that offers a wide range of products and services available throughout the Show-Me State to such markets as state and local government, education, law enforcement, and small business; and

Whereas, one of CPI's major accomplishments which helped it to receive the Missouri impact! Award was its status as the second company in North America and the first company in Missouri to receive ISO 9001:2000 Certification in its field, which was achieved as a result of development and implementation of a Quality Management System that followed the International Standards of ISO 9001:2000; and

Whereas, due to the unwavering commitment of stellar employees, CPI has achieved its mission of providing exceptional products and services to customers; and

Whereas, winners of numerous government and industry projects, CPI continues to demonstrate the capacity for high-quality, high-volume production with on-time installation and delivery:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations and best wishes to President and CEO Dale Gabel and to all the dedicated employees of Computers Plus, Inc., at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Computers Plus, Inc., in Jefferson City, Missouri.
